

SUPPLIER CODE OF CONDUCT

— Parasmani Tubes Copper Pvt. Ltd.

Minimum standards for suppliers, vendors, contractors, sub-contractors and agents

Document No: SCC-01 | Version 1.0 | Effective: 01 April 2026

I. PREAMBLE

Parasmani Tubes Copper Pvt. Ltd. ("Parasmani" or "the Company") is a manufacturer of copper tubes and copper tube fittings for the HVAC&R sector, supplying dealers and project customers across India.

Our copper tubes are certified to IS 10773 : 2025 under our BIS product certification licence, and are manufactured and tested in accordance with ASTM B280, ASTM B75, ASTM B68, ASTM B88, BS EN 13348 and JIS H 3300.

This Supplier Code of Conduct ("the Code") defines the minimum standards of conduct that Parasmani expects from all entities that supply goods or services to the Company, including suppliers, vendors, contractors, sub-contractors, job-work partners and agents (collectively "Suppliers"). Compliance with this Code is a condition of doing business with Parasmani.

The standards set out herein are drawn from applicable Indian legislation, internationally recognised frameworks including the ILO core conventions, and industry best practice. Parasmani reserves the right to verify compliance through self-declarations, questionnaires, or on-site assessments with reasonable prior notice.

2. STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

2.1 Legal Compliance & Business Integrity

Suppliers shall conduct their business in full compliance with all applicable laws and regulations of the jurisdictions in which they operate. In addition, Suppliers shall:

- Not offer, pay, solicit or accept bribes, kickbacks or any other improper payments or benefits to or from any person, including public officials, for the purpose of obtaining, retaining or directing business.
- Not engage in fraud, corruption, money laundering or any other form of financial misconduct.
- Compete fairly and not engage in anti-competitive conduct, including price-fixing, market allocation or bid manipulation.
- Maintain accurate, complete and honest financial records in accordance with applicable accounting standards and legal requirements.
- Disclose to Parasmani any actual or potential conflict of interest arising in the course of the business relationship.
- Not offer gifts, hospitality or other benefits to Parasmani personnel that could improperly influence business decisions.

2.2 Labour & Human Rights

Parasmani is committed to upholding fundamental labour rights and expects its Suppliers to do the same. Suppliers shall:

- Not use any form of forced, bonded, trafficked, involuntary prison or compulsory labour.

- Not employ persons below the minimum working age prescribed by applicable national law or the relevant ILO Minimum Age Convention, whichever is higher. Hazardous work shall not be assigned to persons under 18 years of age.
- Pay all workers at least the applicable statutory minimum wage and ensure timely payment of all legally mandated benefits, including provident fund contributions, ESI, gratuity and overtime compensation as required under the Factories Act, 1948, the Minimum Wages Act, 1948, and other applicable legislation.
- Maintain working hours, rest periods and leave entitlements in accordance with applicable law.
- Respect workers' rights to freedom of association and collective bargaining in accordance with applicable law.
- Treat all workers with dignity and prohibit physical punishment, verbal abuse and any form of mental or physical coercion or harassment.
- Not discriminate in recruitment, compensation, promotion, discipline or termination on any ground protected under applicable law.
- Comply with the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013, including constituting an Internal Complaints Committee where required.

2.3 Occupational Health & Safety

Suppliers shall provide a safe and healthy working environment for all their workers and shall, at a minimum:

- Comply with all applicable occupational health and safety legislation and regulations, including the Factories Act, 1948, and relevant state rules.
- Systematically identify workplace hazards, assess associated risks and implement appropriate controls to eliminate or reduce those risks.
- Provide workers with appropriate personal protective equipment at no cost and ensure they are trained in its correct use.
- Ensure all plant, machinery, equipment and electrical installations are regularly maintained and safe for use.
- Maintain adequate fire safety measures, including means of escape, firefighting equipment, emergency lighting and documented evacuation procedures.
- Provide accessible first aid facilities and trained first-aiders as required by applicable law.
- Provide clean drinking water, adequate sanitation and hygienic facilities for all workers.
- Investigate all workplace accidents, near-misses and occupational illnesses, document findings and implement corrective actions.

2.4 Environmental Responsibility

Suppliers shall conduct their operations in a manner that minimises adverse environmental impact and shall:

- Comply with all applicable environmental laws, regulations and permit conditions, and ensure that all required operational permits and licences are maintained in good standing.
- Manage air emissions, effluent discharges, solid waste and hazardous waste in accordance with applicable legal standards.
- Promote waste minimisation through reduction, reuse, recycling and recovery.
- Conserve water, energy and raw materials through efficient processes and technologies.
- Monitor energy consumption and greenhouse gas emissions and seek to improve energy efficiency over time, including increasing the use of renewable energy where practicable.
- Handle chemicals and hazardous substances safely in accordance with applicable legislation and the relevant Safety Data Sheets.

- Comply with applicable laws relating to land use, deforestation, afforestation and biodiversity conservation.
- Promptly notify Parasmani of any significant environmental incident or regulatory non-compliance that may affect Parasmani's products, operations or reputation.

2.5 Responsible Mineral Sourcing

Given the nature of Parasmani's operations in copper products, responsible mineral sourcing is a material concern. Suppliers shall:

- Not knowingly source or supply copper, tin, tantalum, tungsten, gold or other minerals from conflict-affected and high-risk areas (CAHRA) where proceeds from mineral extraction finance armed groups or are linked to serious human rights abuses.
- Exercise reasonable due diligence over their own supply chains to identify and mitigate conflict mineral risks.
- Adopt and maintain a responsible mineral sourcing policy and communicate equivalent expectations to their own suppliers.
- Comply with all applicable conflict minerals laws and regulations, including those in jurisdictions to which Parasmani's products are exported.
- Cooperate with Parasmani's reasonable requests for information or documentation relating to mineral sourcing due diligence.

2.6 Product Quality

Suppliers whose goods or services form part of Parasmani's products or production process shall:

- Comply with all applicable product quality standards, technical specifications and testing protocols as agreed with Parasmani in writing.
- Implement and maintain a quality management system appropriate to the scale and nature of their operations, consistent with the Parasmani Quality Policy (QP-01).
- Follow good manufacturing practices and maintain adequate traceability records for supplied goods.
- Promptly notify Parasmani of any identified or suspected quality defect, deviation or non-conformance that may affect Parasmani's products or its customers.
- Cooperate fully in any quality investigation or corrective and preventive action process initiated by Parasmani.

2.7 Confidentiality & Data Protection

Suppliers shall:

- Protect all confidential information disclosed by Parasmani, including technical drawings, pricing, customer data and business plans, and use such information solely to fulfil their obligations to Parasmani.
- Not disclose Parasmani's confidential information to third parties without prior written consent, except as required by law.
- Comply with applicable data protection and privacy laws when processing personal data of Parasmani employees, contractors or customers.

2.8 Supply Chain

Parasmani recognises that its supply chain extends beyond its direct Suppliers. Accordingly, Suppliers are encouraged to:

- Adopt their own supplier code of conduct reflecting the principles set out in this Code and communicate it to their sub-suppliers.

- Periodically assess the compliance of their key sub-suppliers with equivalent ethical, labour, safety and environmental standards.
- Notify Parasmani promptly of any material changes to their supply chain that could affect compliance with this Code.

3. COMPLIANCE & ENFORCEMENT

Suppliers are required to establish and maintain internal management processes adequate to ensure compliance with this Code. Upon reasonable prior notice, Parasmani may request self-declaration forms, supporting documentation, or conduct on-site assessments to verify compliance.

Where a violation of this Code is identified, Parasmani will, at its discretion, notify the Supplier and may allow a reasonable period for remediation. Parasmani reserves the right to suspend or terminate its business relationship with any Supplier found to be in material or repeated breach of this Code, without further obligation.

4. REPORTING CONCERNS

Suppliers, and their employees or representatives, who become aware of an actual or suspected violation of this Code are encouraged to report it through the following channels:

Channel	Contact
Email	dhyam@parasmanicopper.com
Post	Plot 5/2, GIDC, Umbergaon, Valsad, Gujarat – 396 171, India

All reports will be handled with confidentiality to the fullest extent permitted by law. Parasmani will not tolerate retaliation against any person who raises a concern in good faith.

5. SUPPLIER ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

By executing this acknowledgement, the undersigned Supplier confirms that it has read and understood the Parasmani Supplier Code of Conduct and agrees to comply with its provisions. The Supplier further undertakes to communicate the requirements of this Code to its relevant employees and sub-suppliers.

Supplier legal name
Authorised signatory name
Designation
Signature
Date
Place	